

MIDDLEBURG.

Rev. Logan Godbey was chosen to be the pastor of the M. E. church at the Ashtabula conference.

The woods are full of agents with prospectuses of the memorial edition of the life of our late president.

Rev. Earle D. Simms lectured in the court house at Liberty Sunday afternoon to a large and attentive audience. The lecture was pretty much the same as that delivered here.

Farmers are quite busy preparing the soil for wheat sowing, of which an average acreage will be sown. Stock pens are being harvested and the yield is most gratifying, considering the protracted drought.

G. S. Durham, who was reported ill in our last, is reported up. Mrs. Rhoda Cox is very sick at her home near Yosemite. Albert Babin is doing as well as could be expected. The other sick are convalescent.

Vienna, better known as "Biscuit" Riffe, colored, was shot and instantly killed at Middleboro while resisting arrest. Deceased was formerly from Yosemite and a brother to Henry Riffe, one of the best known and most respectable colored men throughout this section.

By some means, fair or foul, we do not know why, Casey voters will be unable to vote on the free trustees and bond issue proposition this coming election, but no power can prevent the vote a year hence, when the detestable tally gate system will be knocked as high as Haman.

John Wells, living on Doe Creek, some three miles south of here, is very enthusiastic, so sure is he that it exists on his property. If reports be true, the fluid fairly seeps out of the rocks. There are scores of others who confidently believe they have oil. There are a number of Casey men interested in the oil business and it is only a matter of time until prospectors will be over the Casey fields.

The protracted meeting is still in progress at the Baptist church and it promises to be one of the most successful revivals ever held here. The meeting has been going on now 10 days and will continue at least throughout this week. There have been 30-odd conversions to date. There are fewer or more learned divines than Bro. Simms, who is ably assisted by Pastor J. B. Ferrill. Good audiences are present at both the day and night services and especially is it true of the latter, when the house is crowded almost to suffocation.

Casey was well represented at the Inter-State fair last week, a score or more of our most prominent citizens being in attendance. G. S. Durham and wife are visiting relatives in Lancaster. Dr. Caldwell, of Wayneburg, visited relatives in this vicinity. Miss Marietta Martin, of Mt. Salem, is visiting relatives here. Rev. Joshua Taylor returned from Ashtabula Tuesday, where he attended conference. J. T. Short and the writer attended the Holiness meeting at Liberty Tuesday night. Rev. Simms, who is assisting Rev. Ferrill in the revival here, ran down to Louisville Tuesday on important business, returning Wednesday.

Only a month now until the election, which by the way, will be one of the most quiet for many years, as there is seemingly little or no interest being taken here. Casey democrats will have but two men to vote for, Farris and Jones. If our party has made any nomination for representative in the general assembly, we are not aware of it. The contest for judge is waxing warm, though Mr. Jones and Capt. Raines are both making a stiff fight. The election of the former depends altogether on the apathy in the ranks of the G. O. P. While there is a considerable chink among the ranks that is unalterably open to the captain, yet we are sorry to say there are a few men calling themselves democrats who, if not openly, are secretly fighting Mr. Jones, our only candidate in the county race. Every democrat should fully realize the importance of returning Senator Farris who has made such an enviable record, as the coming legislative body will elect the successor of that miserable misanthrope around our National capital as a representative of fair Kentucky—Deboe. Mr. Farris will poll the party's strength in Casey, which he followed in Boyle, Lincoln and Garrard, his election is assured, and democracy signally boosted.

We notice in the late press dispatches from Manila of the almost complete annihilation of Co. C, of the 9th Infantry on the Island of Samar, which is some 500 or 600 miles south of Manila, and is the abode of the most savage and determined of the Tagal warriors. The natural topography of the island affords a most inviting retreat and rendezvous for the insurgents, who, under the leadership of the blood craving and inhuman Lucban and others, have made it hot for the American troops, but to finish, though the latter seem not yet to be in sight. The losses of the 43d Infantry on Samar was something appalling. The 29th Infantry, of which J. T. Short and a score or more of Casey and Lincoln boys were members, was stationed on this island for several months. It took four companies of Infantry, a platoon of artillery and a couple of gunboats to hold the little seaport town of Catbalogan. It was this same 9th Infantry that went through the awful fire at Tien Siu, during the Boxer campaign in China, and who later scaled the seemingly impenetrable walls of the Imperial city of Peking with a loss of only 25 per cent and to have met almost complete annihilation in their second Philippine campaign. The insurrection in the Philippines is a far more serious matter than most people suspect and the cost of the islands and the subjugation of the people in blood shed alone is something appalling, to say nothing of the many millions of dollars that are being spent annually toward the pacification and installation of civil government throughout the Archipelago. ## WAYNEBURG.

Our school is progressing nicely under the fine instruction and good discipline of Prof. Marcum.

Rev. T. M. Smith will fill his pulpit here Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday he will baptize C. B. Caldwell, Jr., a large tract of timber and preparations are now being made to begin work. This will give employment to many who are now idle.

The ice cream supper which was given at the school house Saturday night by Prof. Marcum, was a success in every way. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the house was full and all had a royal time. The supper was given for the benefit of the District Library and an excellent sum was taken in for that good cause. Miss Myrtle, little daughter of M. G. Reynolds, rendered some excellent music. She is just a little girl, but the skill with which she handles her instrument goes to prove that she is a musician of the type.

Dr. A. C. Caldwell, our most talented physician, is taking a much needed rest at Russell Springs. He called on his best girl at Middleboro while en route to the springs. Mrs. Goshorn joined her husband here Thursday. Miss Dora Rippey and Miss Barker visited Miss Eliza Gooch last Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. W. H. Caldwell continues very ill of paralysis. "Dutch" Goose is improving and is on a fair road to recovery. He is a jolly, good fellow and we hope he will soon be out again. H. H. Caldwell is very ill of typhoid fever. J. W. Reynolds and others left for Garland, Ark., Thursday. Messrs. E. W. and Otto Caldwell, called on two of Yosemite's fairies last Saturday and Sunday. Miss Maud Strand, of Cuba, is with Miss Vera Gooch. Mrs. Will Short, of Middleboro, is with Miss Eva Caldwell for a few days.

Death has been abroad in our neighborhood for the past week. First, Miss Ella Singleton, who was killed in a runaway accident last Saturday, of which an account was given in your last issue, and on the 24th of September the death angel visited the home of E. S. and Ellen Singleton, took from them their son, Winfred, aged 18. He was an intelligent young man and liked by all who knew him. He was only sick a few days with pneumonia and inflammation of the brain. He was waited upon by our skillful physician, Dr. Caldwell, and everything was done that loving hands could do, but death claimed him at last. While we bow in submission to God's will, we recognize the fact that the church and Sunday school in this vicinity have lost a bright pupil. But we shall cherish his memory and strive to meet him in that realm above, where beauty smiles eternally and pleasures never die.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about 25 miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of 20 miles to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps 400. Of these, within the past 12 months, no less than 14 have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

The slaughter of Company C, 11th Infantry, on the island of Samar, turns out to have been a massacre. The assault was led by the president of the town, claiming to be friendly. We had the honor to entertain a few days since during a political discussion, which discussions will arise at times, even among women, that "Goebel got his just dues." The remark was made by a tender-hearted (?) woman. A young mother approving assassination. It does not require a heart-only a sense of decency to condemn assassination. We were asked not to compare the assassination of Gov. Goebel to that of President McKinley. We agreed with the INTERIOR JOURNAL that the assassination of Gov. Goebel was more to be deplored than that of Mr. McKinley, for the first crime was committed by men (?) in full office, while the latter was committed by a deluded creature, taught to believe that wrong was right, but both were crimes and to be deplored by all civilized people.
